

I sincerely hope that the FCC will require definitive testing to ensure non-radiation of power lines on any frequencies before allowing PLC to be placed into use. Any RF radiation of power lines on any frequencies would be unacceptable, and cause to terminate any and all hearings on this project.